

HIPAA Privacy of Notice

Harrison Hasanuddin, DO

張宏彬 醫學博士

We understand that health information about you is personal. We are committed to protecting health information about you. We create a record of the care and services you receive from us because we need this record to provide you with quality care and to comply with certain legal requirements. This Notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed by the Clinic of Dr. Harrison Hasanuddin ("the Clinic"), and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

We are required by law to keep health information that identifies you privately, give you this Notice of our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to health information about you, and follow the terms of the Notice that is currently in effect.

We may use and disclose health information about you for treatment; payment; health care operations; appointment reminders; public health risks; health oversight activities; lawsuits and disputes; law enforcement, coroners; health examiners and funeral directors; national security and intelligence activities; as required by law, to avert a serious threat to health and safety; as required by the military or Veterans' and workers' compensation organizations.

Your rights regarding health information about you include the right to inspect and copy records; right to amend records; right to an accounting of disclosures; right to request restrictions; right to request confidential communication, electronically or by paper; and right to a paper copy of this Notice (full Notice is available upon request).

We reserve the right to change this Notice. We will post a copy of the current Notice in our facility with the current effective date.

Complaints & Questions

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, you may file a complaint with the Clinic or with the Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. If you have questions regarding this notice, or if you would like to file a complaint with the Clinic, contact the Clinic:
